Sir,

I have received a warrant (reference 51/30) for £2.15. 0 stated to be in full discharge of my claim, No. 3060, for compensation and shall be glad to know why a deduction of 10/9d. has been made from the amount claimed. I wish to point out that the amount I claimed was what I considered to be the lowest amount at which I could conscientiously assess the value of the several articles and as from enquiries made it is learned that other officials of the Department have received payment of their claims in full it is a surprise to me to find that it has been thought necessary to make any deduction from the amount of my claim.

Yours faithfully,

R. Duplice

Reply that this claim was fully considered & the amount awarded was correct as was the fair valuation of the loss sustained.

Dear Sir,

I enclose the claim form in duplicate which I trust is in order. It will be noticed that it was not signed before a Justice of the Peace but I tried three offices and found all the J.Ps. out: if however the Declaration signed before Mr. Burton, Commissiner for Oaths, will not be accepted kindly return the forms with two blank copies when I shall have the matter attended to.

I am going on leave to-day hence my desire to get the forms returned to you.

Yours faithfully,

R. Susplice
