and carefully investigated, and the amount awarded represents the total loss sustained having regard to the Committee's terms of reference. In the circumstances the Committee

5. 3. 1917.

Dear Sir,

with reference to my call re. my claim for £159 as compensation for property of mine destroyed during the Dublin Rebellion, I appeal against the small award of £50 (fifty pounds) sent to my solicitor, Mr Murray, £5 of which he deducted for his costs.

The amount I claimed was put at the lowest figure, and the MSS of my uncle, Dr. Maginn, which ran through 4 editions in America and England, and are now out of print, represent a very serious loss to me, as out of the material in them,

I was accustomed to work up articles for the London and American papers.
Those articles are a source of income to me, much needed owing to my ill health and losses, and I was negotiating to get them published.

I beg accordingly that my claim may receive further and more favourable attention.

I beg to remain

Yours faithfully

Miss Augusta Maginn
