Interests in the buildings

I investigated this claim, and find that the damage is so trivial in the front portion that the claimant has been able himself to repair it.

With regard to the rear portion, or gable end, for the repair of which an estimate of £25 has been submitted, I find that it consists of a partition only, pieced together by second hand wood and corrugated iron from time to time, and is in a deplorable
