As Mr. J. J. Hyland had, by my own knowledge, a very considerable amount of furniture, clothing, household effects, etc., at his late residence, 44 Henry Street, all of which was destroyed during the recent conflagration. Mr. Hyland has worked under me as agent for over 2 years, & I have always found him honest & truthful. I believe the "particulars of claim", which I have read, may be relied on.

I have read the particulars of the claim for damages, caused during the disturbances of last Easter Week, which has been lodged by her and Mrs Hyland, who formerly resided at no 44 Henry Street. I know that Mr Hyland, on the occasion of his marriage, bought furniture with the intention of taking a house of his own and that he bought it all to Mrs Fegan's place, 44 Henry Street.

Owing to my own connection with the Royal Liver Friendly Society, first as a Delegate and now as a member of the Sub-Committee of Management for Ireland, I know Mr Hyland, who is an agent of the Society, and I can vouch for his bona fides in this matter. He is a man of strict probity and respectability.
