I investigated the circumstances of this claim & interviewed the applicant. The burning is situated at the corner of Jacob's biscuit factory block in which building the rebels were in force. For safety's sake the occupants of the Public House had to clear out, and some of the rebels subsequently broke in & locked themselves to the accounts' ceiling for the purpose of disguising themselves in order to escape from Jacob's before the military. My estimate will amply cover the loss.

Payment recommended £6 -

Herbert Jordan, Inspector.

Award of Committee: Contents

£6 W.M.
