Dear Sir,

A I have received, per our Dublin Office, a a draft for £47.5.7. in respect of the Bank's claim for compensation for injuries to the Gt. Britain St. Branch. The amount of the claim was £48.5.7. and I shall be glad to know if the amount in the draft is a mistake for this sum, and if not, on what ground the claim was reduced.

B The claim also included a sum of £15.18.0. for damage to the Manager's personal property, and I shall be glad to know how this claim is being dealt with.

Yours faithfully,

Wm H. Dunne

Interests in the buildings

The repairs to the bank premises are carried out with exception of shutters the estimate of £6 for which is reasonable. Some items have been omitted such as lettering for windows and plaster repairs.

I saw Mr Hayes & we went over the items and he showed me any damage not yet repaired. His house furniture was badly damaged and there are a great many items which were overlooked by Messrs Tochnell when they made up the amount of his claim. The claims are reasonable.
