J. J. Healy Esq.,
Property Losses (Ireland) Committee, 1916.

Dear Sir,

I beg to hand you herewith claim £3.6.8 in respect of loss in connection with the damage during the disturbance, on or about the 24th April, 1916. I regret that this claim was not sent in earlier in due form by me, owing to the fact that I understood Messrs Hopkins & Hopkins—who had obtained all the particulars from me at a much earlier date—led me to believe they were looking after the claim. It was only when your letter of the 22nd reached me that I saw Messrs Hopkins & Hopkins again, and found out for the first time that this claim should have been submitted to you by me personally.

I thank you sincerely for your letter of the 22nd which enables me to put the matter in order.

Yours faithfully,

Albert. E. Ranton
