Gentlemen I have despaired of hearing from you re. my Gold watch which was destroyed in your premises - Apart from the loss of the watch, I am at a great inconvenience, not having one to replace it. So that if I do not hear from you soon - I shall be reluctantly reluctantly obliged to place the matter in the hands of my solicitor - as I think after waiting

Six months I am at least entitled to your consideration

Awaiting a reply

Faithfully Yours
