Dear Sir

I am advised by Contract Manager
Telephones Brown Alley that I remain liable to them for replacement of instrument. They are today sending me a p.p. £3.18.9. It has not come to hand at time of writing.

I had before the fire, a much larger stock of envelopes etc than represented by enclosed a/c. I found prices so high I bought sparingly since while I had bought well before.

Three different sets of envelopes. printed with my own address
large size. small size & printed with my travellers name

Telephone: Dublin, 4327.

Telegraphic Address: "Pioneer," Dublin.

I did not replace. Further you will see by enclosed ap* that I had just got in a supply of memos before the fire & I had besides part of my old stock unused & in addition quite a quantity of samples so that my claim under head of Stationery etc is well within the mark.

The large Engraved Brass plate I have not replaced - at my door & is quite different from the small Brass letter plates included in apes herewith sent for your scrutiny. The telephone letter I shall post immediately on arrival yours truly William Hogg

Sir (or Madam),

Telephone Installation.

I beg leave to draw attention to the fact that, under the terms of the telephone agreement, subscribers are liable for the value of all telephone apparatus rented by them which becomes damaged or destroyed by fire, or any other cause, and also for the cost of any necessary reinstatement or renewal, which may subsequently be required. If you have suffered in the recent fires, perhaps you will be good enough to advise me of the extent of the damage, in order that particulars as to the value of the apparatus destroyed may be forwarded to you.

I am, Sir (or Madam),

Your obedient servant,

P. F. CURRALL,

District Manager.

Sir,

I am in receipt of your letter of the 15th instant, relative to liability for the value of the apparatus destroyed by fire, and the cost of replacing same. In reply, I beg to inform you that you are liable, under the terms of your agreement, and the matter is being treated thereunder pending a decision on the points raised, which are already the subject of consideration by the Department.

You will receive a further communication on this subject when a decision has been arrived at.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,
