Dear Sir

I got a note from your firm, noting my change of address. In that letter you say about goods lost at Messrs Hopkins. That is some mistake on your part, for my claim is with regard to a watch from Moore's Jewellers, Sackville St. I should be very glad to have this matter settled, as the watch was absolutely useless to me, & I could very well do with the money spent on same.

Hoping the matter will have your urgent attention.

I remain

Yours truly

Dear Sir.

With reference to a letter received this morning from Moore & Co. Jewellers, Dublin. I purchased a watch from them, which did not give satisfaction, & was sent back for repair. In the mean-time the riots commenced & consequently my watch can not be returned to me. The cost of it was 30/-, & the watch was practically a new one. The firm has asked me to make my claim to you for the money.

Yours truly
