Sir,

I beg to furnish the following claim for articles which were destroyed in my locker in the Telegraph Department of the G.P.O., Sackville St during the recent disturbances.

There is one exception, namely, Herbert's "Telegraphy." I had lent this book to a fellow-clerk - Mr J. M. Phelan, who tells me that the book was destroyed while in his locker. He also tells me that in sending in his claim he omitted to claim for the volume. This is my reason for including it in the present claim.
