D u b l i n.

Dear Sir, Claims Nos. 3779, 3800, 4046, 4134, and 4692.

As requested in yours of 10th inst. I again placed these cases before Messrs. Hopkins and Hopkins, and as a result am informed the amount mentioned on the form as the estimate of the loss is fair and reasonable.

The jewellery for which the claim is made belonged to the workmen. They were not supposed to have any jewellery on the premises at all.

Yours truly,

James H. Swift

10th Octr.,

Mr Swift,

Other claims of workmen for Tools lost in Hopkins & Hopkins were dealt with by another Inspector and were substantially cut down after consultation with the Foreman. As it is desirable to have uniformity of treatment you might look again into these claims after seeing Messrs Hopkins Foreman, and if necessary send in revised reports.

It is noted that jewellery is included in these cases. Is this in the same category as customers Jewellery left for repairs which is covered by the Insurance Policies? If so, separate reports should be furnished for these items
