Sir Patrick Shortall,
18a, Temple Street,
DUBLIN.

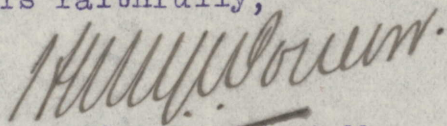

Dear Sir, re Plate Glass Policy No. 89353.

In reply to your inquiry the above Policy like all those on Plate Glass issued during the past 12 months or more contains the following Clause:-

"Provided always, that the Company shall not be liable for loss or damage arising directly or indirectly from, or in consequence of, Fire or Explosion, War, Invasion, Foreign Enemy, Hostilities or Military or Usurped Power."

and the breakages at your Parliament Street premises during the period of Hostilities cannot, therefore, come within its scope.

Yours faithfully,

Joint Resident Manager.

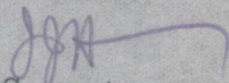

4th October,

re Claim 3815.

Dear Sir,

With reference to your call here on the 2nd instant, I beg to state that a representative of the Yorkshire Insurance <sup>Co</sup> called to-day and stated that the Company disclaim liability under your plate glass policy No. 89353 for the plate glass at No. 8 Parliament Street damaged in the disturbances. If you will kindly obtain and forward a letter from the Company confirming this, I will place the matter of the plate glass before the Committee again.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

Sir Patrick Shortall.

Inspector's Report.

Claim No. 3815

Name of Claimant Sir Patrick Shortall Occupation Contractor

Situation of Property 8 Parliament St

Description	Claim	Insurance (if any)	Valuation of Buildings (Commissioner of Valuation)	Inspector's Valuation of full Damage	Loss Payable on basis of Insurance	Excess of Loss over and above amount payable under the Policies of Insurance
Damage to property	£94-10	Plate Glass £32		£50
TOTALS, £	£94-10			£50

Interests in the buildings claimant is lessee and will have to do certain repairs not claimed for.

The Plate Glass insurance company is of course responsible for £32. Regret I did not make this clear in previous report.

Claimant has now taken stock and attached statements show the shortage in brass lamps and value of wall paper destroyed which cannot now be replaced at prices paid.
