This man was employed in Meagher's public house at the address stated. The premises were consumed in the conflagration and his belongings were lost. I have seen Kinsella at 70, North Strand, where he is now employed, and I have also seen his late employer. Claimant is a respectable young man and appeared to be perfectly straightforward. His claim appears to be moderately stated, but my valuation should make good his loss. No insurance on assistants' property.

Payment recommended £18.
