I have inquired into the circumstances of this claim, and have seen Doyle. The applicant has no claim on the Committee. The facts are as follows and curious enough I was a witness of the occurrence myself. Interests in the buildings

On the date stated Doyle was driving a cab from Middle Abbey Street into Sackville Street. The horse appeared to have lived its allotted span and the cab would have made good firewood. In turning the corner the cab heeled completely over to the dismay of the occupants (three nuns). The loss is not even consequential.
