Gentlemen,

Referring to your letter of 19th ultimo, I am directed by the Property Losses (I) Committee to observe that the claim enclosed with that letter is filled by Messrs Lazarus and Rosenfield, Ltd. That firm, however, as appears from the papers forwarded, has assigned all its interest in the lost goods to Lloyds on behalf of the Underwriters, who have paid for the goods as a total loss under the terms of the floating policies Nos. 2526 and 3529 referred to in the claim. In the circumstances the Committee regret that they cannot entertain a claim on behalf of the Underwriters in respect of the loss.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

During the rebellion in Ireland our Dublin stores were broken into, and many goods were looted and damaged. It is difficult to give definite information on the subject, but apparently your shipments, as per particulars at foot, were looted by the rioters.

The Government, we anticipate, will make some recompense to the cargo owners. Will you please therefore send your claim to Mr. R.J.
