Dear Sirs,

Further to our advertisement in Press of 8th instant, we regret to inform you that during the recent rebellion, our premises were entered by persons who had tumultuously and riotously assembled, and certain goods then upon said premises were wantonly and maliciously damaged, destroyed and looted.

We have endeavoured to gather particulars of the goods thus effected, and so far as our investigations go, the following items belonging to you, come under the category of those looted, viz:-

8 Half Chests Tea, Nos. 354/61.

We respectfully disclaim all liability for the loss, according to our Conditions of Carriage, and now give you these particulars in order that you may prosecute your claim for compensation in any way you may be advised.

We shall be happy to give you all assistance in our power.

Yours faithfully,
