Property Losses (Ireland) Committee, 1916.

Claim for damages caused during the disturbances on the 24th April, 1916, and following days.

- I Andrew Todd, K.C., Recorder of Londonderry, of 'Belvedere', 55 Gilosbury Road Fennybrook County Dublin make Oath and say as follows.
1. For some months previous to the said disturbances I resided with my wife and daughter at the Hotel Metropole, Sackville Street, Dublin. We hired and occupied exclusively one private sitting room and three bedrooms.
 2. At the time of the disturbances, I was holding my Easter Quarter Sessions for the City and County of Londonderry, and so was absent from Dublin.
 3. The property and articles for which I claim compensation had been left by me at the time of my departure for Sessions, with my wife and daughter at the Hotel Metropole.
 4. The Hotel Metropole was completely destroyed during the disturbances, with the result that the said property and articles were also completely destroyed. My Easter Quarter Sessions finished on Saturday the 6th day of May and I returned to Dublin on the 8th day of May 1916. The Hotel Metropole consisted then of only a few broken and blackened walls and a seething mass of burning material out of

4. Contd. Which it was impossible to recover anything of value.

5. I have not recovered the said
property and articles for which I claim compensation nor any part thereof.

Sworn before me this 3/07.
