Dear Sir.

We have to-day received an order on Bank of Ireland for £45.16.0 as settlement of our claim No.448 for Compensation.

Our total claim was for £69.0.4, but we had a letter from you on 1st August stating that the Insurance Company were liable for the replacement of the Plate Glass and that you were unable to entertain that part of the claim.

The Plate Glass item amounted to £11.16.11 and this amount deducted from the original claim would leave a balance of £57.8.7

We would, therefore feel obliged if you would let us know at your earliest convenience how the amount was arrived at as if correct the order has to be presented for payment within one month.

Yours truly.
