Re 15 St Sockville St. ^{what} Action

To J J Healy Esq

I beg to inform you that the building in no way belongs to me and I don't know anything concerning insurance or even who's property it is, I lodged with a Miss Bradley who was some relation to Mr Mr Comas the Tailor at 15 St Sockville St. Mr Mr Comas gave me permission to have a brass plate in letter box affixed and I paid rent to Miss Bradley up to her death. I never got any notice to leave the building but by been put away from access to my letter box (I may mention that my clients used to post me plenty of orders by hand) so unpromptly I have been injured financially to the extent of my claim

Re a Magistrate's Signature I shall attend to same on hearing from you

Thanking you

I remain

Yours Faithfully

Albert Coates

P.S. The said Miss Bradley resided over Mr Mr Comas's shop
