Dear Sir

With reference to my claim of £12.10.0 for damage to House Furniture settlement of which to the extent of £10.5.0 I have received. I would respectfully submit that some allowance ought to have been made ^{to me} in respect of one particular article of furniture viz. a new wardrobe which if not seriously damaged has been certainly depreciated in value by the numerous bayonet 'prods' on the front not to mention damage to lock and handle. As I was not at home when your inspector called, I think that possibly that matter referred to above may have been overlooked. I shall thank you to return to me Fire Insurance Policy (Hibernian Co.) at your earliest convenience as it is required by O'Connell Bldg Society who have a mortgage on my house.

Your early attention will much oblige

Yrs sincerely

John J. Lewis
