Dear Sir,

In accordance with an instruction in a letter I have received from the Under Secretary, I forward herewith a copy of a letter from Messrs F. Lynch & Son in regard to a claim I paid upon them in respect of a stock - my property - burned in their Sackville to prevent during the disturbance of last year.

I am astonished to hear at this time that the Government intend to make any such discrimination between the property of Messrs Smyth & that of their customers, as is alleged by Messrs Smyth. Why should customers - innocent sufferers as well as Messrs Smyth - be penalised?
Through not receiving the intimation to be paid.

I shall be obliged to hear from you, in due course

Yours faithfully

J. Malone.

As regards the item of £600 the Loss of Profits Policy for £800 is not
