Remarks

I visited Ennisworthy today, and had an interview with claimant, relative to his loss, and from local enquiries felt satisfied that he was a participant in the Rebellion, and had been arrested, deported and afterwards released. I am borne out in this opinion by the Police Report, dated 26th Decr 1916, which I annex.

I beg to report that the above named was implicated in the rebellion and was interned for over 3 months & I believe that this man handed out this stuff without any compulsion and his house has been a meeting house, before & since the rebellion, for parties who were implicated in the rebellion.

This man furnished me with a claim for £17: 16: 9 after his release.
In my opinion this man should not be compensated.
