Dear Sir,

Mr William K. Stamp of this town has consulted us with reference to a claim for £15 for goods taken by the rebels during the rising in Enniscorthy. He gave the particulars of the claim to the Local R. I. Constabulary at the time and was under the impression that his claim would be considered. Of course the Government had due notice of his claim. We would be glad to know how the matter has been dealt with and when our client may expect to receive compensation

Yours truly,

P. J. O'Flaherty
