Dear Sir, I have received a cheque for £26.0.0 as compensation for loss sustained, by the total destruction of all my effects at 189 Eden quay during late disturbances, which is grossly insufficient & must protect against its being considered a settlement thereof.

Acted on
14/9/16

Every item of my claim was fully & carefully gone into by the assessors who was fully satisfied with the particulars, including a sum of £50 for loss of my trade register, which it is impossible to replace & its loss to me is irreparable, in fact, if I was paid five times the amount, it would not compensate me for its loss.

I trust therefore it will be further considered & balance of amount paid me

Yours truly
James Blacken
