Dear Sir,

I beg to enclose you herewith claim on behalf of Messrs R. J. Mecredy & Co., Ltd., for their property destroyed during the recent rebellion. In forwarding it, I take the opportunity of saying that the amount claimed represents the expenditure which the Company will have to incur to replace the necessary property. Our loss consisted of the destruction of the Company's safe, stand, and all its contents, and also

Dear Sir,

I beg to inform you that it is our intention to make a claim for the loss of the contents of our safeⁱⁿ which were kept all the documents relating to this company's affairs in the fire at our late offices 34 Ir. Abbey St. We were in hopes that when the safe was recovered from the debris the contents would be intact, but unfortunately they were destroyed.

I beg also to notify you of my intention to make a claim for my personal effects and property which were destroyed at the same time.

I should feel obliged if you would be good enough to let me know at your convenience to whom this claim should be sent.

Yours faithfully,

For R. J. Mccredy & Co. Ltd.
