Sir

I am in receipt of your letter of this morning, & beg to say that my husband & I called with the watch to Messrs Moore, & gave it into Mr. Moore's own hands, who stipulated that we should call for it on the following Saturday. Consequently we got no docket or receipt, as the first transaction was a cash one, & I have no docket of it either, but I will write & ask my husband if he got one.

I have been away, ill, & am sorry not to have replied to your last letter, but I was unable to do so. Apologising for delay.

Yours faithfully Mrs L. Walsh.

Miss Lizzie Welsh,

Kildangan, Co. Kildare,

Madam,

Re. Your Claim - Gold Bangle Watch.

Following my letter of the 7th, and yours of the 5th inst.
Would you kindly let me have the docket you received from Messrs
Moore's in exchange for the bangle when you left same in for repair as there is a difficulty in identifying the article in question.

Yours faithfully,
