Dear Sir,

I enclose Claim in duplicate and policy with the London & Lancashire No.10796998, this policy also covers claim for stock. There is a second policy mentioned, but this is a policy with the tenant Hampton Leedom who had part of the premises which they rented as a stable, and we have not this policy. I would be glad to have this claim brought before the Assessors as soon as possible.

Dear Mr Menzies

I have of our letter, estimating the cost of replacing the fixtures at about £1200. I agree too, at this at pre war rates.

Having left business for in return I gave the fixtures at but a fraction of their total value.

I sincerely hope you will for one appealing to strangers, naturally they will be suspicious but I am willing to state here my books, however my memory is clear that the actual fixtures, including the large & magnificent mirrors (running for nearly 200 feet down one of the side walls) stood in my books at £800, to which must also be added £400 for new "island" windows & tiled floors & shop gases.

As you agree to take over the stock at my valuation

I had truthfully, that all transactions you have had with Mr Parks, my Father ducted in a most honourable & conscientious spirit.
