D u b l i n.

Dear Sir,

We now enclose herewith our Claim, together with Vouchers in connection with Items 1 and 5. It is, of course, impossible to say definitely the value of unused stationery, etc., but from enquiries we have made we have fixed the amount at an estimate which we think does not at all exceed the value of the property claimed for in this item.

Yours faithfully,

David Drimmie & Sons

Dear Sir,

Referring to the Claim which we have sent in, we should like to say that we find we have considerably under-estimated the value of new Stationery and Forms which were burnt, and we shall be glad if you will kindly let us know if we can make a supplementary claim, and if you will kindly send us the necessary form to enable us to do so.

Yours faithfully,

David Drimmie

re. MESSRS DRIMMIE'S CLAIM

Dear Sir,

We have received the necessary forms to enable us to complete the claim of Messrs David Drimmie & sons in respect of the damage done to their property at 41, Lr. Sackville Street but we will be unable to return same completed until next week owing to the absence from business on account of illness of one of the firm.

We hope the delay will not cause any inconvenience.

Yours faithfully,

Longfield Kelly & Armstrong
