Totals, £	14, 17, 9,	nil.	-	£7.	•	-

Interests in the buildings

The building was entered by the Military, the glass having been previously been shattered by rifle bullets. The roof appears to have been damaged to a very small extent. The building is occupied by Mr. William F. O'Bryen, late Manager of the National Bank, Killarney, who takes in paying guests. Some of the repairs were not rendered necessary by the Rebellion. The Committee will observe that portion of the claim is made for some repairs to the premises in 1915 and 1916 prior to the Rebellion. £7. is ample to compensate for the actual damage.
