Sir I feel to have to appel to you owing to the rebellion on Monday 24th April I am at the loss of my costume being burned up in Mrs Brady's 32 Lower Oranmore St. Warehouse to the amount of £1.19 which I can produce the bill which I have 2 bills if needed sorry I cannot give information what Regiment was as in Clannell St. the day of the accorance which I have got another Solicitors Clark paid to take up the case and has thrown it over after I giving it into his hands please but I want you to look it up for me I went to the Castle and stated my case about what the Solicitors Clark has done as in and they told me to put it into your hands and you would see me justified on account of me being a soldiers Wife I would feel very Grateful to you if you would see to my case —
