Carried forward,

Gentlemen

I'm Inaking and pursuing my claim for the damage done to my property and food's in the Shop. I dont know whether I am intitled to any compensation for having my Shop Closed for business for six days during the Revolts I may also mention that the men of the Royal Dublin Fus: were in the house during the above time I did every-thing I could for them but notwithstanding this it was them that smoked and ate all the Fruit & Confectionery &c

I am a poor man with wife and Child and can ill afford this loss I trust that you will see that I am payed for the loss and damage which I have sustained

Thanking you in anticipation

I beg leave to remain
Yrs obt. Servt.
