Dear Sir,

re Claim No. 4830. Peter Wooloughan.

We enclose you particulars which we received from our client as to the various Articles which make up his claim.

We also enclose you Certificates from various people who are acquainted with Mr. Wooloughan, showing that he is a respectable man who would not put in a claim which was not genuine.

We understand from our client that he has now come to the end of his resources and that it is impossible for him to maintain a wife and family on thin air and further that by reason of the loss of his property, through no fault of his own, it is impossible for him to get other goods to furnish a school to carry on his business as a Nautical Teacher until such time as the Government compensate him for the loss which he sustained during the Rebellion.

Kindly let us hear from you as soon as possible,

Yours faithfully,

I have known Mr. Peter Wooloughan for the past twenty years. up to the last three years he has taught navigation in Belfast
When he left to go to Dublin to carry on the same Business.
owing to the uprising his premises were blown up

I hereby certify that I have known Mr Peter Wooloughan for twenty years. I passed all my examinations from 2nd mate to Master, at the first sitting, due entirely to his skilfull teaching. He went to Dublin about three years ago, to conduct a Nautical School, and now, I understand, owing to the Rebellion, has lost everything pertaining to a Nautical School, which must be a very serious loss to him.

Sir,

I beg to state that I have known the bearer - Mr. Peter Wooloughan, for the past three years. During that time his business was a teacher of Navigation and Nautical Astronomy and I have personally, on various occasions, visited his school.

Up to the time of the Rebellion he carried on his business at "Northumberland House", 16 Beresford Place, Dublin, and I may add that his loss, even as regards instruments, furniture &c, has been a very severe blow to him.

Yours faithfully,

Dear Sir,

During the course of an interview with a Claimant I found out that Mr. Peter Woolaghin, Northumberland House, 16, Beresford Place, Dublin, has put in a fraudulent claim, for £183 .

This claim has not come my way, but if it does, I will know how to treat it.

If it has been handed to any other Assessors, if you will let me know, I will give them the information I have received.

Yours truly,

R. N. Kennedy
