Dear Sir,

With reference to our Claim for 6 1/2 chests tea looted last April we would be obliged if you would refund us the Duty Paid on same viz. £16: 9: 0 the Customs Receipt for which we sent you. We received the amount the teas were insured for but as we explained it is not customary to insure the Duty as it is not paid until the arrival of the teas in Dublin.

As this is the only claim we have we would like to have it settled and finished with.

Dear Sir,

We enclose particulars of our claim in duplicate - also certificate of payment of Duty and Insurance Receipt from Messrs. British & Irish Steam Packet Co. Ltd. covering the Invoice value of the packages to the amount of £22:10:0. As we do not pay the Duty until we receive the tea at Dublin it is not therefore necessary to cover the amount of the Duty by Insurance which in this case amounted to £16:9:0.
