Dear Sirs,

We beg to enclose herein debit note for value of box of Rib Bellies consigned to J. McNally, Allenwood. We received a letter from the Tedcastle Steamship Co. in May last stating that this box had been looted from their Stores during the disturbance in Dublin. We enclose copy of this letter herein. We would have sent our claim in to you earlier only we originally sent it in to the Tedcastle Steamship Co. and they have only just informed us that we must put the claims through you.

Awaiting your esteemed reply.

Yours truly,

P. McEvoy, Sons & Pinnington, Ltd.

Sir

I have this day made a claim of £300
for damage done to my property during the belated of the soldiers in my house. at the time of the disturbance. I have no complaint to make of the men as they behaved themselves very well during their stay. it was the number that were put into room that caused the damage they being rather small. my claim is very reasonable.

Yours Truly

(Mrs) Jane Hand.
