Sir,

Sea Insurance Co. Ltd.
Claim No. 4930.
-----

Referring to this claim laid before you on the 12th August last, we are instructed by our clients to ask you to allow one item of the claim to be amended. This is an item of £53.11s.0d. in respect of four chests of tea looted out of property of total value of £220.0s.0d.

The consignees in making up their claim omitted to include, as well as the four chests looted, twenty-two half-chests, which would bring up the total claim from £53.11s.0d. to £88.19s.1d. The consignees in question have since then called our clients' attention to their error, and Mr. Hollway, of Messrs. George Bell & Co., Lloyds' Agent, having investigated the matter, has found that the revised figure is correct. We should be obliged if you would allow this item to be amended, and if you wish any further declaration made on the subject by Mr. Hollway, we shall be happy to have same done on hearing from you to that effect.

Your obedient servants,
