Interests in the buildings Claim in this case is for plate glass windows which were broken during the rebellion. The glass is insured in the "Commercial Union" and I find on referring to the policy that there is no "Prolet's Clause" in the policy and therefore the Company are bound to replace the glass. The second item is one which does not come within the terms of reference & has therefore also been deleted. The manager asks me to get a letter from the Commission pointing out the above facts & declining his claim in order that he may forward it to his Insurance Company. I shall be glad if you could arrange for this to be done. At the same time the policy might be returned
