Dear Sir

In answer to your request of the 18th inst. I enclose you the original Policy of Insurance which I got up from the Munster & Leinster Bank today.

You will see that the receipt I sent you stated that the insurance was for £1500. As a matter of fact, as you will see by the enclosed Policy, the insurance is for £1400. There is £900 only on the house, not £1000 as returned in the claim form. The mistake as to this arose from an error made by an agent of the Company who told Mr Moroney that, on account of the increase in the value of building material, the insurance on the house had been raised to £1000.

Yours faithfully,

Philip Smith

Dear Sir

I spend so much of my time at public boards of late years that some details of my business are only submitted to me. I now remember I was induced to give up Insurance in the Royal on 18 Werburgh St House, and take out the present Insurance No 14798 in the Hibernian. I enclose the Insurance which I found after search & Certificate of last premium paid. The Insurance in the Hibernian No 14,820 was on my branch House 172 Chamber St
