Decr. 19th 1916.

Dear Sir,

It is now eight months since my belongings were burnt in the fire at Clerys where I was then employed. I have not since received any compensation for them, and being winter I am very badly off for warm clothing as everything I possessed was destroyed. I cannot tell you the inconvenience I am put to and must ask you to consider my claim and let me have my money as soon as possible. I filled in the form over six months ago and have not since got anything though I believe some people have been paid their claim.

I am dear Sir
late of Clerys and Co.
Yours respectfully
Kate Flynn.
