Re Claim no 5797 6/12/16

A few days ago I received paying order from Chief Secretary's Lodge for £4. I wish to bring under your notice my claim was for £6 so there must be some mistake in sending cheque for £4. In making my declaration the amount I specified was five pounds as Mahogany Couch burned was value for that amount and in fact at present I could not replace it for £6. So I cannot make out how the figure £4 was arrived at. I wrote a few days ago to Under Secretary relative to this and have been told to communicate with you about the matter. Now it is not a matter of my making a couple of pounds out of the transaction but I think I am ^{in justice} entitled to the amount I claimed ~~in justice~~.

Yours faithfully, W. Gibson
