Miss N. Edge

REPORTED ON BY COMMITTEE

20th March, /7.

re claim of Miss Noelle Edge, No. 5267.

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 16th instant I am directed to say that as already intimated the sum recommended by the Committee in this case represents the full loss sustained by claimant and consequently includes the value of the coat referred to. The Committee see no reason for disturbing the award already made in the case.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

Re- Miss Noelle Edge

Dear Sir,

Referring to previous correspondence I now send you herewith the valuation of the Coat, and I shall be glad if you will bring the matter before your Committee immediately. You have already awarded £12 in respect of the other items, but the coat was not taken into consideration.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant

The Secretary

re. Claim of Miss Noelle Edge.

Sir,

I saw the Japanese Evening Coat which was burned during the Rebellion at the Imperial Hotel and which was the property of Miss Edge. From my experience I am of the opinion that the Coat could not be replaced for £40. 0. 0.

re- Claim of Miss Noelle Edge

No. 5267

Dear Sir,

I am in receipt of your letter of yesterday's date, but I really must say there must be some mistake about the matter. When your accessor called to see me in reference to the claim sometime ago he then stated that £12 would be fair for the items except the coat. He asked me for evidence of the value of the coat. As a matter of fact when I received the Draft I was endeavouring to get the required evidence Will you kindly look into the matter as there must be some mistake.

Yours faithfully,

re- Claim of Miss Noelle Edge 5267

Sir,

I have received a letter from Mr J. J. Taylor of the Chief Secretary's Office enclosing me Draft for £12. herein which I have returned to him. My client would not under any circumstances accept this amount in full discharge of her claim, as the sum of £12 only covers portion of the claim and does not take into account the coat value for £40.

Will you please let me know on what grounds your assessor arrived at £12. for my clients claim.

Your obedient servant

re- Miss Edge's Claim

Dear Sir,

Referring to our conversation to-day, Miss Edge subsequently rung me up on the Telephone, and she states that the Manager of Switzers saw the Coat, and that he can make a valuation, and I told her to get a valuation from him and let me have it. When I receive same I will forward it to you.

Yours faithfully,
