Dublin,

3rd October 1916.

This is to certify that John Mc Guinness of 35, Lower Dominick Street was, prior to the recent rebellion, engaged as bicycle messenger in the service of this Company and that in that capacity he was allowed to leave his bicycle on our premises in Prince's Street. From enquiry I find he left it there on the morning of Fairyhouse Races (in Easter week) and we believe it was destroyed there subsequently. The bicycle was his own property.
