28th Decr .,

Nos. 5460/2 - Myles C. Lawler.
2 Denzille Street,
Dublin.

Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 16th instant, I am directed by the Property Losses Committee to say that it is not possible to state how much sugar was actually claimed for by Mr Lawler as looted from his premises at 20 Bridge Street, Ringsend.

106 Bridee Street &

13 Redmond's Hill

as the statement of loss was prepared from the stocktaking of the 1st March, 1916, and the receipts and sales duly vouched from that period up to the 24th April, 1916. It is estimated, however, that the quantities of sugar looted from the three shops would total to about 21 cwt.

Your obedient servant,

The Secretary,

Dear Sir,

Re Claim Myles Lawlor, 5460/1/2

In reply to your enquiries as to the amount of weight of sugar claimed and allowed for, it is impossible to say how much actual sugar was claimed as the statement of loss was prepared from the stocktaking of the 1st March and the receipts and sales duly vouched from that period up to the 24th April.

A | We would estimate, however, that the amount of sugar on hands in the three shops would be about 21 cwt.

Yours faithfully,

When we asked does this mean that there is sugar on hand is clear.

MEMORANDUM.

MYLES C. LAWLER'S CLAIM, NO. 5460.

The Fire Insurance Policy is in the name of Richard C. Lawler, whereas the Claim is made by Myles C. Lawler.

We are informed by Claimant's Solicitor that Richard C. Lawler formerly carried on business in the house in question, but some years ago handed over the business & premises to the Claimant, who is now the absolute owner. The interest in the Fire Insurance Policy, however, was never changed.

The Policy is from Ladyday, but the last premium receipt is dated 9th May 1916.

Attached hereto, however, will be found a letter from Mr. W. Sinclair, late Branch Manager of the London & Lancashire Life & General Assurance Association, stating that so far as he can recollect the Policy was in force at the time of the Rebellion.

Assessor.

re claim of Myles Lawler.

Dear Sirs,

Richard C. Lawler formerly carried on business in the house in question, but some years ago handed over the entire premises and business to Myles Lawler who is the absolute owner of same and has carried on business for some years. The policy of insurance was never changed, but Mr Richard Lawler has no interest whatsoever in the premises or the business and all premiums have been paid for years by Mr Myles Lawler.

I am satisfied of these facts and if necessary can obtain a letter from Mr Richard Lawler to this effect. He is living in the country. I enclose you insurance receipt which you gave me.

Yours faithfully,
