 Remarks
 With further reference to this claim, and to a communication dated 9th Dec. 1916, received from the claimant, in which he suggests a reconsideration of this claim, I called on Miss Fitzgerald, late Cashier of Wynne's Hotel, referred to in his letter, but was informed by the Subsidiary Company C. & D. Dolphin Hotels Co. Ltd., that her services had been discontinued with, however, I was able to satisfy myself, from the information placed at my disposal by the Boots of the Hotel, who was then the Custodian of documents, that the claim of £2.10/- was quite in order. I now beg to recommend compensation accordingly.

Dear Sir,

I am much obliged for your favour of 4th instnt, and in reply thereto have to state that the trunk-ful of papers, books, etc. was left by me in charge of the cashier (Miss Fitzgerald) of Wynne's Hotel another member of the Committee.

Neither of ~~the~~ us claimed the trunk.

I am confident that if your in this matter a recommendation in favour of settlement of compensation-claim will follow.

Unfortunately I am unable to proceed to Dublin to assist you in the enquiry.

Perhaps you will be good enough to inform me as to the claim to which it refers. I had three claims lodged at different dates two for myself (one paid up last month) and the other on behalf of an organisation. Each claim bore a different address as I was knocked up during the April-May disturbances and in various hospitals, convalescent homes for over four months subsequent.

I should be obliged if you would let me know the circumstances

his claim has been disallowed, as fear there has been some misunderstanding in the matter.
