Dear Sir,

We enclose two claims which should have been sent to you with our list. One is for Mr. Flinn the Schoolmaster of the St. Stephens Schools, and the other for Mrs. Wilson also of the Schools.

We sent these claims for signature in July last, but they were only brought in to us last week, the Schools having been shut up the parties never received same until now. The claims are for personal belongings destroyed owing to the schools, as you are no doubt aware, having been taken possession of by the Rebels in the Mount Street Bridge fighting.

We trust you will kindly receive the claims as it is through no fault of Claimants that they did not receive same in time for lodgment with the other claims.

Yours faithfully,
