Dear Madam, re Claim No.5662.

As the Property Losses Committee has lodged its final report with the Government and is no longer in existence, it is regretted that nothing can now be done in this matter.

Yours faithfully,

Miss N. V. McDonagh,

J. Stealy Esq.
Sir.

I am in receipt of your last communication, re. compensation for Braclett, which I only received this morning, being away from home.

The form which you sent I filled in and forwarded to you, but I nothing of the second one you mention, having only received one.

I would be thankful if you would settle up this affair, as it is a long time pending. A reply by return would therefore much oblige.

Dear Madam,

In reply to your letter of the 21st instant, I beg to say that on receipt of notification of your claim from Messrs. Hopkins and Hopkins on 6th September last, one of the Committee's forms of claim was sent to you to be filled up and returned here. Not having been received an intimation was sent on 23rd November last that if the form duly completed was not returned by 30th November the claim could not be dealt with by the Committee, but nothing further was heard in the matter.
