COMM. FOR OATHS.

23 Victoria Avenue, Donnybrook
63 Upper Lackville Street,

Dublin, October 25th 1916.

Dear Sir,

You must pardon my delay in replying to your letter of the 12th inst., but I was out of town & did not get home until I returned.

The Bangle was given to me as a Present and. I left it with Mr. McDowell (as he can verify on applying to him) for the purpose of having a shilling given to me on Handel Monday and at the time of leaving the Bangle I did not bother about a socket as it was a Personal friend of Mr. McDowell's sent me to him.

Madam,

Re. Claim - Self.

The writer has been appointed by the Treasury to assess losses arising out of the recent Rebellion, and your claim for gold bangle which was destroyed at J. McDowells, 3, Upr Sackville Str., has been handed to him for attention.

Would you kindly advise him when and where the gold bangle in question was bought, and at the same time you might let him have the repair docket which you received from McDowell in exchange for same.

Yours faithfully,

J. S. J. Phillips

re Annie Kavanagh's Claim.

Dear Sir,

I enclose Declaration re loss of a Gold Bangle. Miss Kavanagh was under the impression that Mr. McDowell had sent in a claim on her behalf but from an interview he stated the claim must be made by Miss Kavanagh herself hence the delay in not sending it in proper time.

Yours faithfully,
