Secretary,
Property Losses (Ireland) Committee,

Dear Sir,

As I have left 5, Mont Alto, Dalkey and fearing that you had written, I would be obliged if you would send any communications to my business address, NORMAN TYPEWRITER CO., 5, Upper Ormond Quay. As I understand that these claims have been paid, I would be obliged by you getting mine settled as soon as possible as it is a great inconvenience to me not having these parts, and I put them in at the very lowest cost of same, and some I cannot procure until after the War.

Trusting you will give this matter your immediate attention.

I am,

Yours faithfully,

W. Norman

Secretary,

Property Lossess Committee,

51, Stephens Green, E.

Dublin.

Dear Sir,

Re Claim 616.

I beg to acknowledge receipt of Cheque from the Chief Secretary's Office for £20. I think there must be some mistake as my Claim was for £25, as you will see by my Affidavit I did not put the loss in at cost price, but I allowed for depreciation, therefore I would thank you to see that I get the balance of £5, as very probably there is some mistake.

I am,

Yours faithfully,
