Dear Sir.

re. Claim No. 5719 - Harris.

I duly received your letters relating to this case and have only now had an opportunity of referring back to my notes, which got mislaid consequent on the removal of my residence to I find that I allowed the sum of £2. 10/- to cover Dalkey. the small damage to building and I am returning your papers herewith and trust the matter is now in order.

Yours faithfully,

INSPECTOR.

Interests in the buildings

I have very carefully investigated this claim. I have ascertained that the landlord has the building insured in the Remarks"Gresham" for the amount above stated. The claimant is a Jew and his estimate of loss is greatly exaggerated. My valuation should cover everything.
