Dear Sir

With reference to a Camera which was destroyed by fire on the premises of Messrs Doyle & Son, 14 St Sackville St. during the disturbances of Easter Week and for which compensation has been claimed by Mr Blackburn. I beg to state same was given to me by claimant and ~~then~~ then handed to Mr Hughes of Messrs Doyle & Son prior to the outbreak.

Involving these particulars will enable you to complete your investigations

I am Dear Sir

Yours faithfully

Dear Sir,

With reference to your interview with Messrs Flusk & Hughes re my claim for compensation for loss of camera, I beg to say that the article referred to was a parting gift from a friend of mine who left this country about 18 months ago. I would not have wished for twice the value of same to have lost it & would be very glad to produce further evidence if same were in my power.

I don't know where the camera was purchased, but I believe at the present time, the cost would be much more than what I claim.

Yours faithfully,
J Blackburne

Dear Sir.

Following up our conversation of 15th inst. I herewith notify you, as requested. That I was the last person to have possession of a camera, which I received from Mr A. Flusk (Phibsboro),

On Good Friday 21st April 16 I left above mentioned camera under lock & key in the premises of Mr Hoyt's 11th Sackville St, which were completely destroyed by fire during the Easter disturbance & consequently I have no reason to believe that camera in question escaped destruction.

I regret you had so much trouble in locating me & should you need any further information from me I will be pleased to supply any I have.

To
A. Lyon Esq. A. W. Hughes
